Dangerous Conceit Two

At twenty-two, she is now a killer under the guise of bartender. Her and three friends have been under the strict hand of Moretti with no choice but to aid him in his savage attempts for power. Escaping him is futile. With a four year old girl in their midst, the women will do anything to protect her. They still have

Dangerous Conceit (Tomassi #2) by Ali Lee

At two in the morning, Lexi stumbled inside the house where she lived. She locked the door and tossed the keys on a cardboard box that acted as an entryway table by the door. The room contained a single aged sofa, a couple of plastic end tables and bolted windows that were smothered with curtains to keep away curious passersby. Only one picture hung on the plain white walls of the room, a large framed picture of a woman with dark brown hair and a single inscription underneath:

dangerous - English-French Dictionary WordReference.com

He is an ugly little Mara, named CONCEIT. Unlike his big brother Pride, who is not lacking in dignity, Conceit is a mean, slinking little devil, lurking in dark corners and always ready to rush out and nip our heels. Doubt is slain when the disciple wins the stream: Conceit being a manifestation of Pride, remains a menace to the very end.

Is it dangerous to be overly confident to the point of conceit? I can't help but to internally and subconsciously think I'm better than almost everybody I run across. It's difficult to articulate and explain since it has to do with feelings as well. I rarely ever reveal my feelings of superiority but I often think it. But thoughts become actions and eventually part of your identity ...
