Detour and Access: Strategies of Meaning in China and ...

In Detour and Access, François Jullien investigates the subtlety, strategy, and production of meaning in ancient and modern Chinese aesthetic texts and political events. Moving between the rhetorical traditions of ancient Greece and China, Jullien attempts no simple comparison between these two civilizations. Rather, he uses the perspective provided by each to gain access to one culture considered all too strange — “It’s all Chinese to me” — and to another whose strangeness has ...

Re: How can I detour and get internet access thru Blackout Iran - Theoretically you could look into dial in Internet access through a provider outside the country by using a PSTN connection first. It's probably not very feasible because you need the right equipment and a subscription with the intended provider; it probably won't be very fast either :
