That scene - the civil rights leader sitting down with the former segregationist - is the point of departure for Stephan Leshner's masterful George Wallace: American Populist. Wallace first captured the national spotlight At the University of Alabama, personally obstructing a federal segregation order.

George Wallace : American populist : Leshner, Stephan ...

For unbeknownst to his more urbane critics, George Wallace was setting the national political agenda for the remainder of this century. In electing Nixon, Carter, Reagan, Bush, and even Clinton, Leshner argues, the American people have voted for Wallace's ideas in gentrified form in every election since 1968. For good or ill, Wallace has not only become mainstream, it was he who diverted the ...

George Wallace : American populist - ECU Libraries Catalog

Leshner points out that Wallace's populism, unlike that of Reaganite Republicans, took on the rich, and tells how Wallace, crippled in a 1972 assassination attempt, recovered a humanity that led him...

Nonfiction Book Review: George Wallace: American Populist ...

L'interprétation globalement bienveillante du mouvement populiste qui a prévalu durant l'entre-deux-guerres parmi les historiens américains a ensuite été remplacée, dans les années 1950, par des descriptions beaucoup plus négatives, qui n'hésitent pas à tracer un parallèle entre les populistes du XIX e siècle et Joseph McCarthy ou George Wallace, voire avec le fascisme. Le ...
