N.B. Any change from the previous syllabus, published in September 2004, is indicated by a heavy line in the margin.

INTRODUCTION

The Common Entrance English syllabus for examination at 11+ and 13+ has been devised in accordance with the reading and writing elements of key stage 2 and key stage 3 of the National Curriculum for English. 11+ and 13+ candidates take two papers: a reading and a writing paper.

AIMS

A course leading to these examinations should:

- (i) give candidates opportunities to take part in a broad range of speaking and listening activities, so that oral work becomes the basis for written work;
- (ii) develop the skills of reading to allow study of multi-cultural factual writing and literature suitable for the age ranges;
- (iii) enable candidates to use various kinds of written language effectively for creative expression and practical communication by extending their grammatical and syntactical skills;
- (iv) provide a base for continuing study of language and literature, and encourage independent study and learning, including the use of libraries, reference books and ICT;
- (v) give candidates opportunities to work with a wide variety of poetry, prose, plays and factual material;
- (vi) provide enjoyment and stimulation to encourage a positive attitude towards every aspect of the subject.
