To make the visual identity genuine, we engaged SHR's own members in creating the logo. Snask united one of Sweden's oldest and most genuine grassroot movements under a new inclusive brand, perfect for celebrating 100 years of handicraft innovation. Every regional office now uses one coherent visual identity proudly, using Snask's brand guidelines to produce branded material with ease and accuracy.

This minor miracle is made possible by the art of découpage, in which lace-like patterns are meticulously cut with scissors or a craft knife. The pictures are traditionally done in one piece , in black and white - découpage can nevertheless take on all sorts of shades and forms, sometimes appearing as a collage of papers in different colours.
