Social Structures in Moliere's Theatre by James F. Gaines ...

James E Gaines has undertaken a sociocritical study that attempts to understand how the literary forms of Moliere's plays relate to the social forms of the early modern period. He contends that the comedies represent an imaginary network of social relationships remarkably homologous to the world view of the literate French public during the reign of Louis XIV and that it is possible both to identify the place in society of characters in Moliere's plays through reference to an index of ...

Social Structures in Moliere's Theater. by GAINES, James F ...

Dans les comédies-ballets de Molière, les pères familiaux s'accordent le privilège de disposer librement de leurs filles en leur interdisant le mariage ou en les mariant avec un homme de leur choix, selon les avantages que les gendres leur apportent. Motivés par leur seul égoïsme, ils agissent d'une manière autoritaire contre la morale moderne de l'époque et provoquent un conflit ...
