Without Michael on board, the production of Space Jam 2 was stopped. Michael Jordan, meanwhile, kept up with his “ Space Jam buddies ” in a series of TV commercials for MCI. The series of commercials would be the last time that Jordan and the Looney Tunes characters would share the screen together.

Michael Jordan slams, Bugs Bunny jams and a cavalcade of Looney Tunes and NBA stars hoop it up in the rim-rattlin', out-of-this-world, roundball romp: Space Jam. Review. Simpler and cruder than Who Framed Roger Rabbit in terms of story and technique, this is still a great deal of fun, confirming that Jordan is every bit as mythological a creature as Daffy Duck or Yosemite Sam --Jonathan ...

Bugs Bunny: [Jumps on Michael's lap] Why, Michael, I thought you'd never ask. You see these aliens come from outer space, and they wanna make us slaves in their theme park. Eh, what do we care they're little. So we challenged them to a basketball game. But then they show up and they ain't so little. They're huge! We need to beat these guys.
