Supervision is a management activity, and supervisors have a management role in the organization. Leadership is the ability to effectively and responsibly engage with people, processes, and programs, to achieve organizational, team, or individual goals. Within both definitions, there is a desire for a specific outcome, typically task completion.

The Difference Between Leadership & Supervision (2020)

Some key elements of instructional leadership include the following: 1) Prioritization: Teaching and learning must be at the top of the priority list on a consistent basis. Leadership is a balance of management and vision (NAESP, 2001). While leaders cannot neglect other duties, teaching and learning should be the area where most of the leaders' scheduled time is allocated. 2) Scientifically based ...

What Is Instructional Leadership and Why Is It So Important?

Instructional leadership is generally defined as the management of curriculum and instruction by a school principal. This term appeared as a result of research associated with the effective school movement of the 1980s, which revealed that the key to running successful schools lies in the principals' role. However, the concept of instructional leadership is recently stretched out to include ...
