I then read this book of Brands', "American Dreams: The United States since 1945" (2010) which covers an era much closer to home. It came as a surprise to realize that the time frame of this latter book, 1945 -- 2009, already considerably exceeds the 35-year time period covered in "American Colossus". I tend to read more 18th and 19th that 20th Century American history. In part this is due to personal interest and it part it is due to a sense that it is difficult to get a sense of ...
