Zigby love adventures and trying new things but always seems to stumble upon troubles. He takes his friends with him on an adventure to go camping. They climb mountains, go through swamps, forests, and then finally find the darkest jungle. This story displays friendship in a number of ways, how friends go on adventures together even though they do not know what is in store. Also, that they stick by each other's side when things go wrong. The illustrations were colorful and ...

Zigby Camps Out is a great book, the kids love it! The story is very funny and recognisable. The images are colourful and contain amazing details. Small ants and spiders are hiding everywhere throughout the book, and the kids enjoy spotting all of them. I will definitely be using this book in the classroom for many more years to come!

Zigby Camps Out. Read it again! By Mom2three on Aug 20, 2008. We got this from the library recently and my 3-year-old daughter has wanted me to read it over and over to her. We have been talking about camping and this book is a fun addition to our discussions. She likes how it gets scary, and then turns out funny. The illustrations are bold and cheerful. I would definitely buy this one ...
